第二节 书面表达 (满分 20 分)

Dear Paul,

How's everything going? I'm so glad to know you adore Chinese culture. Without doubt, Chinese classical music is one of the typical symbols. Actually, in China, Chinese classical music is never out of date. It is often played by many gifted musicians who play traditional Chinese instruments, like the guzheng, the yangqin, the pipa, xiao and so on.

Different from western music, Chinese traditional melody is connected to Chinese poetry, which makes it more charming. When you listen to it, you must be personally on the scene, just like communicating with the composer. In order to let you know more about it, I will send you a CD of music played by erhu. After you experience elements from different cultures, you will know the power and the beauty of the music. Hopefully you will enjoy it!

Yours,
LiHua

Well, the most important thing is safety. First of all, you must wear shoes that cover your feet in the lab. Also, don't wear loose clothes or scarves. They may get caught in something or fall into liquid. Another thing to do for safety is clean up. Be sure to put the waste in the correct containers. We can't put liquid and paper together. This is extremely important. I don't want any fires in this room. You are responsible for cleaning your own lab equipment and putting it away. Nobody's going to clean up after you. OK, any questions?
