第二节 书面表达 (满分 15 分)

Dear Mr. Smith,

I'm writing to express my sincere gratitude for your help. I am so excited to have made progress in my oral English.

In class, you encourage us to do lots of activities. We all love your teaching style which is so unique as to interest us in speaking English. More importantly, you are so kind and patient that you avoid making us feel stupid. As a result, our oral English has improved a lot.

Recently, I find I have some trouble in listening. I wonder if we can hold a discussion about how to get the listening details. I am looking forward to your advice. Many thanks to you again!

Yours,

Li Hua
