Here are some simple ways of tending to make a big difference to people' s happiness and, more importantly, they are all within our control.

Be comfortable with who are you are.

Nobody' s perfect. But so often we compare a negative view of ourselves with an unrealistic view of other people. Learning to accept ourselves and being kinder to ourselves when things go wrong increase our enjoyment of life. 46.

Take care of your body.

Our body and mind are connected. 47 It instantly improves our mood and can even lift us out of depression. There are many simple things we can do to be more active each day. We can spend time outdoors, eat healthily and get enough sleep.

48

Have you ever felt there must be more to life? Good news—there is. And it' s right here in front of us. We just need to stop and take notice. Learning to be more mindful and aware does wonders for our happiness, whether it' s on our walk to work or in the way we eat.

Keep learning.
