To my excitement, New Year is coming. I have expected it for a long time because I will have more free time to do what I want. I plan to spend some time improving my English.

Last term, English classes were like bad dreams for me. I couldn't remember so many English words and couldn't understand what the teacher said in class. And I often failed in my tests. That made me very upset. So I decided to do something for it.

I plan to read English articles for half an hour every day. What's more, I'm going to listen to English tapes as much as possible. Of course, I need some necessary exercises, too. "Where there is a will, there is a way." Nothing is impossible as long as I try my best. I believe I can.

One morning, six-year-old Bill decided to make cakes for his parents. He went to the kitchen, found a big bowl and put it on the table. He took out the heavy flour bag, then tried to put some flour into the bowl. The flour went everywhere. But Bill didn't care. He just wanted to do something good for mum and dad. He took out a box of eggs and went to get some milk and sugar. Just then he saw his cat near the bowl and went to drive it away to the yard. Unluckily, the egg box fell to the floor at the same time. He tried to clean up the broken eggs, but got his clothes dirty. Just then, he saw his mum and dad standing at the door. Bill was afraid that mum and dad would be very unhappy, so he cried. But they weren't. Dad picked up the crying son and mum kissed the crying son.

Things are not often like this. But that's what we sometimes meet in our life. We try to do something good, but it goes wrong. Don't stop trying to do that for parents or for others. They'll be glad that we tried, and sooner or later we'll do it well.

Teenagers may have this or that problem in their daily life. We interviewed some teenagers about what problems they usually have. Here are the top 5.

The problem on the top of the list is that teenagers are too tired. They have to go to different kinds of classes not only on weekdays but also during weekends.

Another common problem among teenagers is that their parents are always angry with them because they can't get good grades.

Most teenagers say they are so busy with their schoolwork that they don't have enough time for their hobbies.

Some are worried that they are not popular with their classmates. They don't know how to improve the relationship with others.

Others think they already grow up, but their parents don't agree them to plan for themselves.

Do you have any problems or worries? Tell us and let's find solutions together.
